

WE are invoicing this week but we are not too busy to wait on you. Come in, we have several small lots of goods to offer you at reduced prices.

JACKMAN'S

See Reagan Land and Cattle Co., if you want a new house.

"War's Women" a big production at the De Luxe, Wednesday and Thursday, January 29-30.

Comer Bros. are building a carpenter shop on Mitchell Street near the Lone Star Lumber Company.

"War's Women" a big production at the De Luxe, Wednesday and Thursday, January 29-30.

C. E. Osborne, a member of Uncle Sam's force at the post office, has recently purchased the Fred West residence in the Northeast part of town.

W. R. Neal of Holdenville, Okla., has been in Clovis this week. Mr. Neal owns land south of Clovis and will possibly move here during the next several months.

"War's Women" a big production at the De Luxe, Wednesday and Thursday, January 29-30.

Wilton Chalfant, Emmet Boyle and Emory Boyle went to Santa Rosa this week to attend the funeral of Wayne Morris Johnson whose parents live at Vaughn. The three Clovis boys were pall bearers at the funeral, all the pall bearers having been young men who had seen service. Mr. Johnson was in the navy on U. S. S. Brooklyn and was killed at Yokohama, Japan while coaling a vessel.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Barnett from Ranchville were in Clovis Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett report their school rather light on account of the auto trucks not being able to negotiate the snow packed roads. Ranchville is one of the largest consolidated schools in the county employing four teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Miss Imogene Dorman and Miss Thelma Reagan. Owing to the heavy snow knocking out the trucks the latter named teacher has been transferred temporarily to Bryan school house, the north side of the district which arrangement will continue only while the truck is not able to make the rounds and deliver the children to the consolidated school.

Let The News do your Job Printing—Phone 97.

FOR SALE—Ford Five passenger car. W. D. Sutherland, Clovis, N. M. 2tp

NOTICE!

I have opened a complete Tin Shop in the Curren Building next door west of Antlers Hotel, and am prepared to do any and all kinds of Sheet Metal Work.

Metal Cornice, Skylight, Ceiling, Roofing, Gutter and Spouting, Double Ventilated Flues, Ridge Roll, Valley Tin and Etc. Tin and Enamel Ware. Storage and Stock Tanks. Wind Mills and Well Supplies. Repairing and all Work Done Promptly.

I will appreciate your trade.

Clovis Sheet Metal Works
W. H. SIMMONS
Proprietor

LINCOLN NOTES.

As the weather is beginning to moderate, Little Cricket will again venture forth.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson and daughter, Leah, visited Sunday and Monday at the home of the gentleman's father, M. J. S. Johnson.

Clara Dennis of Clovis was in this neighborhood on business Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. W. V. Westfall left Wednesday of last week for Amarillo, Texas where her husband is working on a ranch near that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Lee and children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lee of Cloud, spent Sunday at the home of the gentleman's sister, Mrs. Wm. Akers.

While in Clovis on business, Mr. Charles Palmateer was attacked with the flu. He has been staying at the Mott home and will be able to be brought home soon.

Claude Johnson who has been stationed at Camp Pike, Ark., since last August, has received his discharge and arrived home Friday.

Miss Julia Hanes, who, while working in Clovis became a victim of the flu, is now at home with her parents.

G. H. Palmateer hauled Mr. Kiefer a load of mauls Wednesday.

Arlo Baker of Clovis is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Deavours.

Mr. S. T. Brasher made a business trip to Clovis, Wednesday.

LITTLE CRICKET.

Theda Barn and Geo. Walsh in the "Serpent" at the De Luxe, Friday and Saturday, January 24-25.

Let The News do your Job Printing—Phone 97.

For Quick Sale

Two close in east front choice resident lots on west side. Located at 300 N. Connelly. Four blocks from P. O. Deal with owner direct. 1-23 1tp ERLE E. FORBES.

Theda Barn and Geo. Walsh in the "Serpent" at the De Luxe, Friday and Saturday, January 24-25.

PERSONAL MENTION

J. H. Singer has been quite sick this week.

Lorraine Quinn one of the Clovis News force spent Sunday and Monday visiting at his home in Lubbock.

Engineer W. W. Atwood has moved to the W. J. Caveny residence on North Connelly street which he has recently purchased.

The Scheurich Agency is just completing a new residence on West Bent Avenue.

Miss Lella Kendall of Kendall Dry Goods Co., will leave the early part of next week for New York City and other points to buy new spring and summer goods.

George W. Singleton left Tuesday morning for a trip to Santa Fe. Mr. Singleton will likely go to California for a visit before returning home.

Queensware and Glassware
Barry Hardware Co.
THE STORE THAT STAYS

Joe C. McClelland has purchased the building now occupied by the Sanitary Cleaning Shop on East Grand Avenue from J. S. Fitzhugh.

Several paving petitions are now being gotten up and will be presented to the city council soon. At the meeting Monday night none were presented but they no doubt will be soon.

Firestone Tires and Tubes are the best
Barry Hardware Co.

Mrs. A. B. Hubbard is at Denton, Texas, attending the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Alice Naylor who has been quite sick. Mrs. Naylor formerly lived in Clovis and was before her marriage, Miss Alice Stringer.

Lawrence Hickman was in Clovis Saturday. Mr. Hickman is the owner of one of Curry County's best farms, eight miles north of Clovis and he predicts a good crop year for 1919, owing to the perfect winter season.

Auto painting. Bert Curless. Phone 254.

J. W. Mordecai has commenced a new residence for John Kroboth on East Grand Avenue.

Highest cash price for hides, poultry and eggs—Mexico Commission and Produce Co.

We will pay you 18 cents per pound for your hens, and 21 cents per pound for your turkeys. A. B. Austin & Son.

Miss Grace Curtin of Denver, Colo., has accepted a position as bookkeeper at Barry Hardware Co.

L. L. Walker will soon begin the erection of a modern bungalow on North Main Street.

Representative J. R. Hull has been put on the following house committees: Military Affairs, Railroads, State, County and Municipal Indebtedness, Journal Revision.

Paul Reed was in Clovis Saturday for a load of feed for his father's ranch. Mr. Reed reports cattle doing remarkably well considering so much bad weather.

John Coleman from Tolar, N. M., was in Clovis Saturday transacting business. Mr. Coleman is an old settler, having lived in Eastern New Mexico some 15 years and he says the present cold spell is the longest he has ever seen in New Mexico.

Gene Houston passed through Clovis Saturday on his route to Farwell. Mr. Houston was formerly a Curry County citizen, but sold out and went to Oklahoma intending to buy a quarter section there but he says they wanted $12,000 to $16,000 per quarter and he could not see that they could raise much more on them than on Curry County land so he decided to return and buy land in Curry County and get the advance in price of land which he feels is sure to come on Curry County land the next two years.

Auto painting. Bert Curless. Phone 254.

Auto painting. Bert Curless. Phone 254.

A. E. Curren made a business trip to Taiban Wednesday.

Osteopathic treatment is very successful in relieving all diseases and disorders of women. Dr. H. R. Gibson.

Miss Opal and Norvell Tate who live at Ranchville were in Clovis shopping Saturday.

Miss Imogene Dorman was in Clovis Saturday from her school at Ranchville visiting the home folks.

We will pay you 18 cents per pound for your hens and 21 cents per pound for your turkeys. A. B. Austin & Son.

E. H. Robinson has recently purchased the D. M. Rogers residence on North Mitchell Street. This is the residence Mr. Robinson now lives in.

Emmett Taggarder returned home this week from Kelly Field, Texas, having received his discharge from the service.

A. B. Austin received a message the first of the week that his son, Cash, had returned from France and had landed on American soil. He is expecting him in Clovis during the next ten days.

Plumbing and Plumbing Repair. Prompt and Satisfactory

Barry Hardware Co.
THE STORE THAT STAYS

Mrs. J. A. Wallace and daughters, Ruth and Lottie were in Clovis Saturday shopping. Mrs. Wallace reports the road still heavy with snow out her way.

Mrs. S. G. Von Almen has resigned her position in the woolen purchase department of the navy at Washington, D. C., and has gone to join her husband, who is commanding officer of the United States army base hospital at Eagle Pass, Tex. Dr. and Mrs. Von Almen formerly resided in Clovis. Dr. Von Almen enlisted in the medical corps of the army last spring, and his wife went to Washington to accept a position in the woolen purchase department of the navy. Their home is in Roswell.

REMEMBER!

Luikhart's Big Clearance
SALE CLOSES
Saturday Night Jan. 25.

MANY BARGAINS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT

Extra Specials on Men's Overcoats and Macinaws. Two-piece Underwear and Flannel overshirts.

If you want to save Money visit this sale before 9:00 Saturday Night

W. J. Luikhart and Co.
THE BIG STORE